

Martin Schwedler joined Raiffeisen Investment more than 11 years ago. Martin holds the position of CEO, being responsible for all M&A and ECM related transactions in Russia and CIS. Before that Martin served as an executive board member of Raiffeisen Investment in Vienna, covering Russia, Turkey, Poland and Romania as well as several industry sectors.

Prior to Raiffeisen Martin acted as a managing director of star 21 networks AG, a pan-European telecoms company in Frankfurt, as a director of private equity investments at GE capital in London, and as a director in the corporate finance department of CIBC Oppenheimer. Martin has more than 18 years of investment banking and private equity experience in a wide number of industry sectors in Europe, Middle East and Africa.

He holds a Master of Law from the University of Innsbruck and an executive degree from LBS.

